

LONDON FOR ROYALLY SUCCESSFUL EVENTS

LONDON HAS been named in the Top 3 most Instagrammed cities of 2017, so come and make your colleagues royally jealous with London's latest incentive opportunities!

A Royal Itinerary

All things 'royal' continues to be a popular London event theme as our centuries-old British Royal Family still resides in London today.

To sample London's royal history, take your group and first head to Kensington Palace for Diana's fashion story exhibition to see some of the dresses she wore, laid out in a stately setting. Then stroll through the gardens to Harrods for some luxury shopping.

The May Fair Hotel is a perfect place for guests to be treated like royalty since it was opened by King George V. From here you can stroll through St. James Park, the second of our eight Royal Parks across the city, to Westminster Abbey, the historic setting of some of the most famous royal weddings and coronations. Many of these locations can be used for private hire—host your delegates in a once-in-a-lifetime venue with a champagne reception and a viewing of the crown jewels at the Tower of London. A short train ride from central London, you will find two more of London's palaces: Hampton Court, where you can dine like Henry VIII and his doomed queen, Anne Boleyn, once did in the Great Hall. Banqueting House is also available for once-in-a-lifetime events; imagine gazing up at Reubens' paintings during a gala event.

An Incentive Itinerary to Make your Colleagues Royally Jealous

If you need a tour with a difference, treat your delegates to a treasure trail with small car BIG CITY in vintage mini coopers. May the best team win! Or, hail a black cab to a covered market and eat lunch from its numerous food stalls. For an authentic London experience, try Borough Market, one of London's oldest markets, dating back to the Roman times or stroll the antiques of Portobello Road and experience Notting Hill and its charm like a local.

Once you have eaten your fill, and sampled some fresh ground coffee, the urban mountaineers will love Up at The O2, an unforgettable once-in-a-lifetime climb over the 52-meters-high dome in Greenwich, offering outstanding views of London.

LONDON
CONVENTION BUREAU

No incentive tour would be complete without a stay at a five-star London institution like London Marriott Hotel County Hall with views of the Houses of Parliament, or The Bloomsbury Hotel next to the world-class shopping on Oxford Street.
